

Jamie Stitt

14 Regional Black Practice Coach

Coaching Experience:

- I have coached youth programs at Alliance for the last 4 years, plus I was the practice coach for 16-4s last season.
- In college I coached 1 season of club volleyball at Prime Time Volleyball in Champaign, Illinois and I coached 1 season of Middle and High School Volleyball at Ridgeview Middle and High School in Colfax, Illinois.

Education:

- Masters of Science in Communication, Illinois State University
- Bachelors of Arts, University of Illinois at Springfield.

Playing Experience:

- Parkland College and University of Illinois at Springfield

Personal:

- Jamie moved to Tennessee in 2003 and resides in Nolensville with her husband Jimmy, their two kids, Jayden and Jaycie, and their dog, Wrigley. The Stitt family attends The Village Church. Jamie earned her master's degree at Illinois State University and her bachelor's degree at the University of Illinois at Springfield. Jamie Stitt serves as Assistant Commissioner of Business and Workforce Development for the State of Tennessee. Jamie grew up in Lexington, Illinois.