Professional: I spent a few years as a zookeeper in Jackson, MS. When I decided to move back to Nashville, I started working at a tissue bank, called DCI Donor Services. I worked there as a Manufacturing Technician for 5 years, making bone and tendon grafts. This year, I was promoted to trainer so now I teach people how to make them.

Personal: I am from Nashville; I went to Hume-Fogg HS from 2003-2007. I played club volleyball as a Libero at Impact and Select VBCs. All my family currently lives in Mississippi, and we are very close. I lived with them for a few years after college but really missed home. I moved back in 2014 and have no plans of leaving anytime soon! I LOVE my pets. I have a retired racing dog named Eli, who is 3 yo. I also have a huge cat that I've had since I was 16. His name is Malcom, and he thinks he's a dog! I also love traveling, hiking and playing sand volleyball...well, really any type of volleyball. That's usually what you'll find me doing on my free time!
